

Annabelle Crasta (10th grade) Earns Prestigious Black Belt (Dan 1) in Karate

Annabelle Crasta, a 10th-grade student, has achieved an impressive milestone by earning her Black Belt (Dan 1) in Karate. This prestigious accomplishment reflects not only her exceptional skills in martial arts but also her commitment to discipline, perseverance, and personal growth.

Training for 4 years, Annabelle demonstrated remarkable dedication, often balancing her studies with rigorous practice sessions. Her journey to the Black Belt involved mastering complex techniques, understanding the philosophy of Karate, and participating in numerous competitions where she showcased her talent and sportsmanship.

Annabelle's achievement is not just a personal triumph; it serves as an inspiration to her peers and younger students in her community. Her determination and hard work exemplify the values of respect and resilience, central to martial arts training.

With her new rank, Annabelle looks forward to continuing her Karate journey and further refining her skills. This accomplishment marks the beginning of new challenges and opportunities in both her martial arts and academic pursuits.

Congratulations, Annabelle!
